

Your guide through public administration

You have a business vision, but don't yet know what licences, permits, applications or official certificates are needed? Your Point of Single Contact (PSC) will act as an intermediary and manage all the necessary steps so that you can get started quickly. The PSC allows you to have all official procedures handled by a central unit and can keep you informed as matters progress.

Neutral and reliable

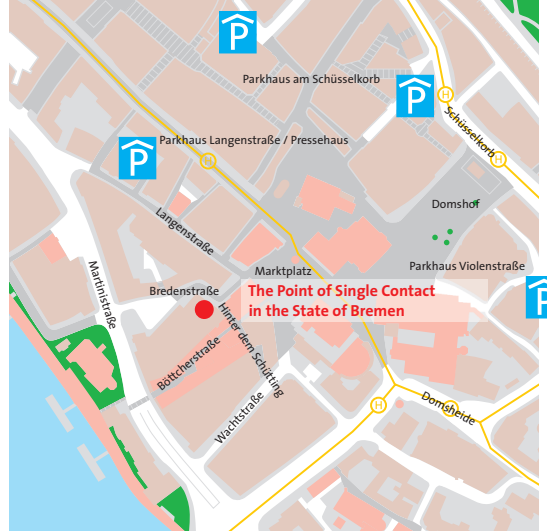

The Point of Single Contact is subject to government supervision and is covered by state liability. It provides you with reliable information and expertly handles all your dealings with public authorities. Using the services of the Point of Single Contact is optional.

Easily reached

The Point of Single Contact will be glad to assist you.

Personally, from Mondays to Thursdays from 8 am to 5 pm, Fridays from 8 am to 4 pm, and 24/7 on the Internet!

With well-presented information and the option to have all your formal procedures handled electronically.
